

2025 Council Election

Find out about becoming a councillor

The Managing Director at the ATSI ICT Aboriginal Corporation RUSSELL STYCHE will be holding drop-in sessions in December for residents of Central Darling Shire who are interested in becoming a councillor at next year's council election.

Russell is a Tubba-Gah man from the Wiradjuri Nation and has lived his life mainly within the Ngunnawal area.

Russell has been a director and member of Aboriginal organisations for 30 years. He has developed and delivered governance training packages to regional and remote organisations nationwide for the Office of the Registrar of Indigenous Corporations.

Candidate drop-in sessions

Everyone is welcome to drop in and have a yarn between 11AM - 4PM at the following locations.

MENINDEE - Tuesday 3rd December - Civic Hall

IVANHOE - Wednesday 4th December - Council Office

WILCANNIA - Thursday 5th December Council Office

Candidate drop-in sessions

Central
Darling
Shire
Council

